NATIONAL HISTORY DAY 2015

LEADERSHIP & LEGACY
in history

Using Primary and Secondary Sources Effectively. You asked for it, we got it for you! Featuring an introduction from David Ferriero, Archivist of the United States of America, education specialists and archivists from the National Archives and the White House Historical Association with an NHD state coordinator, this webinar will address the differences in primary and secondary sources, how to use primary sources, how to find primary sources, and what judges are looking for in annotated bibliographies and process papers.
